DER STANDARD | derStandard.at: Our philosophy

DER STANDARD

since WED 19th OCTOBER 1988 | AUSTRIA'S INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER | PUBLISHED BY OSCAR BRONNER | € 2,50

DER STANDARD | derStandard.at honours its values. What they are? Learn here about our philosophy.

DER STANDARD | derStandard.at is a liberal (online) newspaper. It is independent of political parties, institutions and interest groups. It addresses readers who expect comprehensive, broad and thorough coverage as well as substantiated, accurate commentaries in the areas of economics, politics, culture and society.

DER STANDARD | derStandard.at stands for...

- ... the protection and support of our parliamentary democracy and a republican political culture.
- ... the principle of due course of law, and the disapproval of extremism and totalitarianism.
- ... the economic competitiveness of our country under the principles of a social market economy.
- ... tolerance for all ethnic and religious groups.
- ... equal rights for all citizens and all federal states of the republic of Austria.

You may say: "Everybody claims that." That may be right. But it's about being true to your word. DER STANDARD | derStandard.at lives up to those promises – straight forward and with placing quality demands on ourselves. We strictly separate between news coverage and opinion. We do our best as gate keepers and weighing what's newsworthy – in the interest of the public. We offer our readers a platform to make their opinions heard. That's how we try to reach our aim: responsible news for a responsible social coexistence.
